DATE / /

Sentence

A sentence is a group of words that expres a complete thought

It always has atleast one independent clause

Sentences → on the basis of function (communicative)
Sentences → on the basis of structure. (internal grammatical)

Functional classification

1) Declarative Sentence - a declarative sentence makes a statement or provide information, it ends with a fullstop or period. [sub + verb + obj]

I like to play chess
She goes to market
Team India wins 3rd championship
The teacher is teaching in the classroom

2) Interrogative :- an interrogative sentence that asks a question, ends with ?

① Yes/No

auxilia + main verb + obj / WH + auxil. + S + main verb + obj model. verb

① He plays cricket	① Do you play chess?	① When did you wakeup today?
2) She goes to market	② Does she went to the market?
3) Team India wins the champion trophy	③ Have she prepared for tomorrow exam
4) The teacher is teaching in the class
5) They were taking us for inspection

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

PAGE NO.
DATE / /

Direct to Indirect → Where is my pen?
Can you please tell me where is my pen?

→ Did you
→ Do you know that Tanya has received your lette
→ Have you withdrawl cash from shopping.
→ may I know you ?

Exclusive sentence - an exclusive sentence express strong emotion surprise or emphasis, it ends with an ~~explan~~ exclamation mark
Wow, what a beautiful house!

Imperative sentence - an imperative sentence tells a command, request, instruction or warning these execution generally ends with period (.)
open the door
Go and check what others are closing.

optative sentence :- an optative sentence expresses the wish hope or prayer
Best of luck , May God bless you